

Professional Courses

Taught by

Dr. Woodrow Johnson, Jr.

The Pentateuch

A detailed study of the first five books of the Old Testament with special emphasis on Genesis and Deuteronomy.

Introduction to Biblical Studies I

An introduction to the Judeo-Christian tradition. This course is designed to foster an understanding of the literature of the Judeo-Christian heritage and to relate it to life, relationships, and the contemporary world.

Continuation of Biblical Studies I

An introduction to the Judeo-Christian tradition. This course is designed to foster an understanding of the literature of the Judeo-Christian heritage and to relate it to life, relationships, and the contemporary world.

Introduction to the Old Testament

An introduction to the history, literature, and religious faith of Israel during Bible days.

Introduction to the New Testament

An introduction to the history, literature and theology of the New Testament.

Christ and the Gospels

A study of the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) which form the first three accounts of Jesus acts and teachings.

Life and Letters of Paul

A historical and exegetical study of the book of Acts and the Pauline Epistles. Emphasis is placed on the development of the early church.

Christian Doctrine I and II

An analysis, interpretation and critical approach of the fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith.

Christology

A critical interpretation and analysis of major problems in the understanding of Jesus as person and his work.

Black Religion and Theology

An in-depth study of the theology emerging from the Black religious experience with particular attention given to the developments and discussion in Black theology as it relates to the Christian faith.

History of the Black Church

A historical survey of the rise and development of the distinct denominations which comprise the African American Christian communities.

Christian Mission and Evangelism

A study of the history and Biblical basis of mission and evangelism, and how they relate to the Church.

Introduction to Christian Education

A brief survey of the field of Christian Education, its principles, programs, and methods.

Christian Education of Youths and Adults

A study of the characteristics, needs and interests of youth and adults (ages 12-24) in the church setting, and of the educational methods employed in ministering to them.

Church Administration

A study of the overall purpose of congregational work in the local church and the pastor's administrative role in it.

Baptist Polity

A study of polity and practice in Baptist Churches

Introductory Homiletics

This course is designed to examine all aspects of sermon preparation and delivery. Special emphasis is placed on the purpose, content, and structure of the sermon.

Advanced Homiletics

An advanced course in preaching designed to build upon the previous experience gained in sermon preparation and delivery. Special emphasis is given to preaching different kinds of sermons.